NEW JERSEY

Have you ever found yourself on the road somewhere in New Jersey and wondered if there was a nearby Sons of the American Legion Squadron? With the relatively small size of New Jersey, there is sure to be one close by. There are 154 S.A.L. Squadrons in the state, spread over twenty-one counties, so there are many to choose from.

This Directory lists them all by County, in numerical order under each heading. Addresses and phone numbers are included for your convenience. Everyone's cell phone has a GPS app these days, so dial in the address and you'll find the Squadron you are looking for.

Stop by and visit any one of these American Legion Posts listed - you'll be welcomed by your fellow Sons.

Compiled and Edited by Gary S. Crawford, Past Commander of Neptune SAL Squadron 346 and current Vice Commander, SALute Editor, and Monmouth County Exec Committee Adjutant.
